

Internet Scavenger Hunt

Wiring Diagram for a stepper motor: TEC model CBA45-01101

Who wrote the tariff law that President Herbert Hoover signed, and what were its effects?

John Carmack used to communicate with the world through his .plan file. What is a .plan file, and what did John tell the world about two major 3D APIs through his .plan file?

Should you ever pay money to have your novel edited and published? Why or why not? (Give internet references.)

What worldwide internet event occurred on Feb. 8th, 1996?

What is an RFC? Why is it called an RFC and not a standard?

Who was Biff, and why is his name still on computers today?

What is the first published use of the term “copyleft”? Who used it, and for what?

What games did Steve Henderson design, and what sort of games are they?

If you search Google images on my name (“Mark Graybill”), a picture of an integrated circuit comes up. What is the integrated circuit and why does it come up on a search of my name?

You receive an email from a friend that tells you you should look out for a security problem with RPCSS on your computer, that people can take over your system. How do you find out if it is true, and what should you do about it?

What is the contribution of a gosling and a joy to the computer world?

A person whose first language obviously isn't English mentions “Vendeltiden” in a post on a web forum. What is she talking about?

Is Nokia Japanese?

Something out of an old science fiction movie was seen attacking modern-day Germany on the internet. What was it, and where was it seen?

What worldwide internet event occurred on Nov. 2, 1988? Why did they call it that? Who created it? What happened to him?

Who is wrote the first compiler?

How does a compiler differ from an interpreter?

What's the homepage for England's version of NASA? While you're at it, find the homepages for the NASA equivalents in Italy, Russia, India, and Japan.

What's a sid, and why would you want to listen to one?

What is an Edgar filing, and how can someone buying stocks use one?

A sick little kid in the hospital needs you to send emails to pay their medical bills. True or false? Give references.

What is an “Africa Scam”?